

NCGC January General Meeting
January 9, 2014

Alice Brown called the meeting to order at 10:00. The program was Let's Have A Flower Show, presented by Bonnie Baker.

Alice announced that the minutes are available on line. The treasurer, Gwen Heck, gave the following report:

December 1, 2013--December 31, 2013
Beginning Balance	$4,971.46
Income	60.00
Expenses	376.99
Ending Balance	$4,654.47

Membership chair, Mary Lou Proctor, announced that the current membership stands at 65 members. Thirty-nine signed in for the meeting. She said new directories are available. Donna Luther updated the information regarding the topic for Federation. It will be Designing with Humor, rather than How to Turn Your Patio into a Farmer's Market. In spite of the cold temperatures, two flowers were brought to the horticulture table. Lori Fay displayed the NCGC apron, encouraging those who wished to buy one before they are all sold. She announced the March 29 date for the plant sale. It will be held at Villagio's courtyard, the same location as last year. Gayle Spence gave information on the next two months' speakers. February's speaker will be Mike Serant who will speak on Getting Your Lawn and Garden Ready for Year Round Success—Organically, Of Course! The topic for March will be Orchids 101, presented by Bruce Cameron. The election of officers for next year resulted in Pat Chislett elected as vice president, Cheryl Fawvor as secretary, and Gwen Heck as treasurer.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30.
